

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair has already shown they are
biased in their news
reporting by
refusing to air the
announcement of the names of the soldiers killed in Iraq. We really
don't need any more
one-sided
broadcasting on the public airwaves
masquerading as
"news".

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
